

Paridhi Puri of Class XI D is a commerce student who has made the school proud with her impressive and excellent achievements. Following are her commendable accomplishments:

- She is the winner of the Enterprising Student Award in a competition held by School Enterprise Challenge, an international programme run by educational charity Teach A Man To Fish. She achieved the first prize amongst 6000 students from 110 countries all over the world. She will be awarded with a laptop.
- As part of #KidsTakeover programme on World's Children Day 2017, she took over the job of UNICEF India Chief Ms. Yasmin Ali Haque on 20th November 2017. She interviewed the legendary Sachin Tendulkar as part of the same.
- She was engaged in Counter Speech fellowship, a three month initiative launched by Young Leaders for Active Citizenship (YLAC) in collaboration with Instagram to increase awareness about mental health, body positivity and diversity. She was amongst the top 25 teen leaders to be selected out of 300 students from Delhi NCR.
- She represented the school at Meltingpot2020 innovation summit held in Hyderabad and presented a Research Poster on Socio-economic conditions of ASI Historical Gates- An Employment Generation Perspective. She won the Research Innovator Award.
- She was a part of the school's team of Climate Change ambassadors who collaborated with UN Information Centre (UNIC) and National Progressive School's Conference (NPSC) increase awareness about air pollution in the country.

- She was the national winner of Essay Writing Competition organised by BrainGain Magazine and won a Redmi Y1 smartphone.
- She interned with PHD Chambers of Commerce and worked on community outreach programs.
- She is the Contribution Seeker in the Editorial board of Trouvaille Journal, an online international literary magazine.
- She has had her articles and poems published in Brainfeed Magazine, Delhi Poetry Slam Magazine, Changing Tomorrow and Ink Drift.
- She was part of the team that secured the third position in a national quiz on UK-India Culture organised by British Council.
- She was part of the team which represented the school at The Shri Ram Ecosummit, organised by Shri Ram College of Commerce. Their team was the top 6 amongst 140 teams from all over North India.
- She secured Rank 1 in Commerce Olympiad and Rank 2 in Economics Olympiad at School Level.